THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 1894.

ONE CENT.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER. THE HOW & THE WHY

The Maysville Ballists Got It in the Neck at Ashland.

ASHLAND, August 3d, 1894.

We marched to the grounds today headed by a brass band playing "See, the Conquering Hero Comes." If all Ashland was out to the game yesterday, the suburbs joined them today. Fully 700 people witnessed the game.

Our boys made a great showing in their new uniforms of blue with red caps, stockings and belts.

Brunner was in the box for Maysville, and pitched a splendid game and was given excellent support.

Our boys were on their mettle, and had Ashland just where they wanted them, but the umpire was determined that Ashland shouldn't lose.

Cox put up with his rank decisions as long as possible, but his patience gave out.

This was in the first of the ninth. Claggett had reached third, and the score was 9 to 8 in Maysville's favor.

Claggett was on third and two were out. O'Neill went to third to coach Claggett in. Collins hit in to right. Lloyd got the ball and threw to Nix. Nix had the ball waiting for the runner. O'Neill ran in and Claggett belted him. Nix touched O'Neill. Claggett ran around Nix and touched the plate. The umpire declared him safe.

Cox came in from the field, and a howling mob poured out on the diamond, and the game went to Ashland by a score of 9 to 0.

The game by innings was as follows: Frank flew out to Lloyd; Bulmer hit to third and Hill fumbled it, and he took second; a passed ball to Nix hit to Cox for an out at first; Galt hit to right; Lloyd got the ball and threw to Nix. Nix had the ball waiting for the runner. O'Neill ran in and Claggett belted him. Nix touched O'Neill. Claggett ran around Nix and touched the plate. The umpire declared him safe.

Kounse hit to Cox; Rooney hit to Hill for an out at first; Rhodes hit to short for an out at first.

Nix flew out to Galt; Sparks flew out to Rhodes; Bruner was hit by pitcher and Cox ran for him and stole second; Rudy hit a three-bagger and Cox scored; Calk struck out.

McMullen hit to second and Davis missed it; Frank hit past short for a base; Bruner made a wild pitch, McMullen scored and Frank took third; Bulmer flew right to Sparks, who threw to Hill for a double; O'Neill fouled out to Nix.

Lloyd hit to third for an out at first; Cox struck out; Davis flew out to Galt; Galt hit for two bags to left; Claggett got hit on ball; Kounse hit to short; Sparks fumbled and the bases were full; Rooney sacrificed to Sparks for an out at first; Rhodes hit to Cox, who threw Claggett out at the plate; McMullen hit to right and Kounse and Rhodes scored; Collins struck out.

Hill hit past third for a base; Nix hit for two bases to center; Sparks hit to right and Nix scored; Bruner hit to third and forced Sparks out at Second, and Bruner scored second; Rudy struck out; Calk hit to pitcher; Lloyd struck out.

Bulmer hit for three bags; O'Neill hit to short and Sparks threw to Davis, who missed it; Galt hit past second for two bases; O'Neill tried to steal home on a passed ball, but Nix got him at the plate; Claggett hit to Sparks, who threw Galt out at the plate; Kounse flew out to Cox.

Cox hit to center for three bases; Davis hit to center for one and Cox scored, and Davis stole second; Hill hit past short for one and Davis scored; Nix struck out; Sparks got hit on ball; Bruner hit to right for a base and the bases were full; Rudy hit for one over second and two scored; Calk hit for a base and two scored; Calk was caught at second; Lloyd hit to O'Neill for an out at first.

Rooney struck out; Bulmer hit to second and Cox fumbled it; McMullen struck out; Collins hit to second and Cox stepped on the base and put Rhodes out.

Cox fouled out at Claggett; Davis hit to third for an out at first; Hill hit to Galt for an out at first.

Bulmer hit for two bases; O'Neill flew out to Calk; Galt hit to third and Hill missed it; Claggett hit over short for one base and one scored; Kounse was at the bat, Bruner made a balk, one run scored and Kounse went to first; Rooney hit to short for an out at first and one scored; Rhodes struck out.

Nix hit to short for an out at first; Sparks hit one to short for an out at first; Bruner hit to short for an out at first; McMullen struck out; Collins hit to Hill and Calk missed it; Bulmer hit to left for three bases and Collins scored; O'Neill hit for two bases and Bruner scored; Galt hit to Cox for an out at first; Claggett hit to Sparks for an out at first.

THE LEDGER'S representative is indebted to Messrs. Ireland, Bryan and Lawrence and all others connected with the Ashland Baseball Club for courtesies extended.

THE HUNTINGTON GAME.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., March 3d. We went down again today but it took players from West Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio and twelve innings to do it.

It was as pretty a game of ball as was ever witnessed. It was a pitcher's battle. Wadsworth had nineteen strikeouts and Taylor thirteen.

Had it not been for a rank decision by the Umpire in the ninth inning the score would have been 2 to 1 in our favor.

Nix hit for two bases (the only one in the game). He stretched it into three bases but the Umpire declared him out. Everyone saw clearly that he was safe and gave the Umpire a roast. This was the only rank decision he made. Sparks made a hit and Nix could have scored the winning run.

A wild throw to first by Hill and two errors by Davis gave Huntington the game in the twelfth.

Fred Frank, Ashland's great outfielder, played left field for our boys. He had five chances and accepted them all in clever style.

He came home with us this morning and will play left field the balance of the season.

Nix received Wadsworth's delivery in clever style. He had twenty-two putouts in the game. A record that rarely ever falls to the lot of a catcher.

Cox made a sensational catch of a high fly that was loudly applauded.

It is the opinion of every baseball enthusiast in Huntington that Henry Wadsworth is the finest amateur pitcher in Kentucky.

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12
Maysville 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1
Huntington 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3

Three base hit, Nix; stolen bases, Frank 3, Cox 2; base on balls, off Wadsworth 3, Taylor 3; struck out by Wadsworth 19, Taylor 13; hit by pitched ball, Cox, Calk.

Time of game 2:20.

The Rev. Davis W. Clark, A. M., of Union Church, Covington, arrived this morning on the 10:10 train and proceeded to Ruggles Campground, where he will preach tomorrow at 10 a. m. Come and hear him.

A GRAND SUCCESS

Was the Ball at the Neptune Hall Last Evening.

There are some people who would like to know "What's in a Name?" Well, there's a lot in the name of the club that entertained last evening at Neptune Hall.

The name is "U R Wanted and Mus Kum Club," whose members are some of the most worthy young gentlemen of our city.

They had issued a goodly number of invitations to their ball, and there was a large crowd present in consequence. And to say they all enjoyed themselves would be only telling the truth.

At 12 o'clock refreshments were served in the lower room by Martin Bros., and this end of the evening's festivities was thoroughly enjoyed.

All in all, the club with the unique name really entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Duke Watson entertained the young folks last evening in such an elegant manner. There was dancing and refreshments and a good time generally. Those present thoroughly enjoyed the evening's pleasures, and all were loud in their praises of Mr. and Mrs. Watson, wishing they would entertain more frequently.

A BOLD ROBBERY!

George Cox and Son's Silk Shelves Looted Last Night.

The Fair Always attracts crowds of strangers, and Some are good and Some are bad.

But if half the reports be true, this year's aggregation "takes the cake"—and about everything else that is movable and cool enough to handle.

There were numerous reports of petty thieving, but last night the big 'uns got in their work.

Climbing over the rear brick wall, thieves carefully carved a panel out of the back door and entered George Cox & Son's drygoods store.

Evidently, some one of the parties had the "lay of the land," for they knew just where the silks were kept. After helping themselves to the blacks they went to the shelves of the colored silks, fifty feet away, and took a lot of them.

In all, 18 pieces were taken, valued at about $600.

After making their selections they went to the second floor and tore off several pieces of shade cotton to use as wrappings for the stolen goods.

They were evidently frightened off, as some goods that had been passed out into the yard were left lying on the back steps.

Beyond what is stated nothing else was disturbed.

They had bolted the back door on the inside to prevent Mr. Lissant Cox coming in case they should be discovered.

MY GIRL.

You ought to see her, goodness, goah! she's all the world to me. Our love has been a growin' till we both are eighty-three. She isn't as used to be, with roses on her cheek.

When her and I went splashin' in two daises in the creek. Ole Tim has kept on growin', but our love grows twice as fast. An' me an' my Maria are a stickin' close an' fast.

The years have had their sorrow, their sun shine an' their pain, But 'longside o' Maria I would live them o'er again.

Her smile is like an angel's, an' she's just as dear to me. As when I called her put an' queen when we were twenty-three. Yes, life has had its struggles an' 'vove wrinkles on our brow, But love has kept on growin' an' we both are happy now.

The billows keep a heavin' an' we're floatin' with the tide. Maria's still as gentle an' as loving as a bride.

"My girl"—that's what I've called my love for many, many years—She smiles in answer thro' her eyes when they are wet with tears.

We're jargin' on together o'er the rugged paths of life. An' smooths each other's trouble like true husband and true wife; Our love has never faltered, an' pray God it never will.

Until life's war is ended an' our hearts lie cold and still.

—Harry C. Davis.

IN DISGRACE.

Li Hung Chang, Hero of the Ping Rebellion,
Is Divested of the Order of the Yellow Riding Coat.

The Emperor is Angry Because Chang Ali-owed Japan to Get Ahead of China in Respecting the Yellow Riding Coat.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Cable advice to the Japanese legation says that on July 29 the Japanese troops at Seoul advanced upon the Chinese position at Shan-Yang, and after a night which lasted several hours, drove the Chinese from their stronghold, capturing many prisoners and munitions of war. On the morning of the 30th the Japanese troops proceeded to march to Gusan.

The legation has not yet received any news of a fight at the latter place, and believes, in view of what has been received about the battle at Shan-Yang that the reports of the Chinese victory at Ashan, or Yashan, have been confirmed with a battle which took place at Gusan. The legation officers here say that the Chinese would have to go the distance and the Japanese to reap the result of such a battle, and if there had been such a victory the news of it would have been received here.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 4.—Dispatches have been received confirming the report that the emperor had divested Li Hung Chang of the Order of the Yellow Riding Coat, which is the highest order in China, allowing the wearer privilege granted to the emperor. The emperor, the dispatches say, has freely expressed his anger at the victory having allowed Japan to get ahead of China in preparing for war. The emperor is now divesting the victory of this order does not necessarily imply his deposition from office.

This action of the emperor has fallen like a thunderbolt here, as it is feared that the incident will lead to the emperor's overthrow. He is regarded here as the only leader who has been able to divert the victory of this order does not necessarily imply his deposition from office.

During the rebellion he became commander-in-chief of the royal army. At its close, as a mark of approval, he was decorated with the yellow jacket, a decoration of which the emperor's bearer is a member of the emperor's household. The wearer ranks with the first order of nobles.

The jacket is adorned with a dragon. Victory Li's official residence is at Tien-Tsin, the port of Peking. Chihli is the leading province in China, and the ruler is always the most important man in the kingdom.

The divesting of the yellow jacket does not imply that he will cease to be a leader, but it means the emperor's disgrace with the emperor. If he wins a victory, that may regain the emperor's favor. The yellow jacket is removed and a red one is worn in its place.

GUZMAN RECOGNIZED.

Salvador Will Now Ask for the Extradition of Gen. Guzman.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The United States has finally recognized the new government of Salvador, and Dr. Horacio Guzman, who, in addition to his representation of Nicaragua, is accredited from Salvador, was Friday morning, just before his departure, presented to President Cleveland, the secretary of state. The usual formal speeches took place, and after a few minutes' conversation the new minister departed.

It is said at the state department that no particular significance attaches to the fact that Guzman is a refugee, which is indisputably in control of Salvador, and that the status of the refugees on board the Hennington is not materially affected by the fact that Guzman is a refugee. Guzman says he will without delay ask for the extradition of Gen. Ezeta on a number of charges.

QUICK JUSTICE.

Guillotine to Be Used on President Carnot's Assassin.

"Vive La Revolution Sociale," Defendant Explains Caserio Santo.

When the jury brought in a Verdict of Guilty—Coutage, Comrades, Vive L'Anarchie! The Condemned Murderer Will Be Guillotined to the Last.

LYONS, Aug. 4.—At the conclusion of the trial of Caserio Santo, the murderer of President Carnot, in the Assize court here, Friday, the prisoner was sentenced to be executed by the guillotine.

There were few people around the palace of justice when the trial of Caserio Santo, assassin of President Carnot, was resumed Friday. The court regulations and military guard were the same as Thursday, and on Thursday, the prisoner was escorted into the dock handcuffed to two gendarmes, and with two gendarmes bringing up the rear. The prisoner seemed more defiant than Thursday, and took his seat with a mocking smile upon his face. Lalliance, the soldier who was a fellow prisoner with Caserio at Marseilles, testified that Caserio told him that he intended to kill President Carnot, possibly at Lyons when the president visited there.

"That is a lie," interrupted Caserio, excitedly. "I never told you or anyone else anything about my intention to kill Leblanc." Leblanc continued: "Caserio confided to me that he was designated by lot."

"That is untrue," shrieked Caserio. "How untrue!" asked the soldier, turning to the prisoner: "I said to you, after you had made that remark, that I would be so bold as to kill President Carnot? I saw him in Paris surrounded by troops and police." You answered, "He will be chosen by lot."

There was great excitement in court when the prisoner and Leblanc were speaking to each other. Leblanc said: "Caserio told me that he had often seen King Humbert in the streets, but he added that to kill him it would be necessary to have a rifle and shoot him from the street, as he would be so surrounded by soldiers."

"That is a lie," shouted Caserio. "I was never chosen to kill President Carnot. Moreover, absolute liberty of action was granted to all assassins."

The prosecuting attorney reviewed at length all the details of the trial and demanded that the jury should not hesitate to do its duty.

M. Dubreuil, counsel for the defense, followed and made an appeal for the prisoner.

After an absence of about a quarter of an hour, during which there was considerable excitement in court, the jury returned and announced a verdict of guilty without extenuating circumstances.

The presiding judge, M. Breuille, then pronounced the sentence of death by the guillotine.

When the death sentence was uttered, Caserio exclaimed: "Vive la revolution sociale!"

The prisoner was immediately seized by the gendarmes and hurried toward his cell beneath the courthouse.

As he left the courtroom Caserio cried: "Coutage, comrades! 'Vive L'Anarchie!' In spite of the prisoner's defiant attitude his habitual smile disappeared from his face when the sentence of death was pronounced. M. Dubreuil, the prisoner's counsel, gave notice of appeal and in doing so asked the presiding judge to refer the case to the jury at the opening of the session be entered on the records.

At the conclusion of the public prosecutor's speech there were visible signs of delight throughout the courtroom at the eloquent denunciation of anarchy by the prisoner and his wife, who, in the trial, Caserio, whose life, consumed in the law, and the rightful demand of civilized society.

"My little boy was very bad off for two months with diarrhoea. We used various medicines, also called in two doctors, but nothing done him any good until we used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, which gave immediate relief and soon cured him. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need diarrhoea or cholera medicine." J. E. Hare, Trenton, Tex. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Drug dist.

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhoea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berks county, Pa. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Drug dist.

Many who have noticed the beautifully lighted stores of Messrs. W. C. Miner, J. H. and J. C. Peor have wondered what new style electric lamp they were using. The fact is, however, that the light is made from plain every day gas with the Weibach incandescent burner and it can be fitted to any gas fixture in five minutes. The Weibach consumes about half as much gas as the ordinary tip burner and gives nearly four times as much light, and no flickering—absolutely a steady soft, white light that is grateful to the most sensitive eye.
